Live, Learn and Thrive.

Phone: 575-646-2746
Graduate School
http://education.unm.edu/special/education

Phone: 575-646-2402
Department
Special Education/Communication Disorders

http://www.unm.edu/
New Mexico State University

Phone: 575-646-7831
Office: Speech 114
Faculty@unm.edu
Las Cruces, NM 88003-8801
P.O. Box 3001
NMSU SPE

Special Education/Communication Disorders
Robert W. Courson, Ph.D.,
For more information contact:

State University
New Mexico

Application Deadline for Spring 2013

Application Deadline:

Interviews will be scheduled after the application.

Your transcripts, graduation resume and unofficial copies of the project please submit an NM-PASS app.

Disorders Program. To be considered for application to the University's Graduate School, students must apply to the University. Students must

NM-PASS Application and Resume

Graduate Students in NM State University who have been accepted as a

Application Procedures
Focus Area D, Grant #H325K100429
Special Education Program CFDA #84.325K
This project is funded by the Office of

Graduation

Grants must begin within five years of
Special Education Program CFDA #84.325K
This service must be completed within the first five years of the grant.

Minimum 51% of the
Special Education Program CFDA #84.325K
These services must be completed within the first five years of the grant.

Service Obligation

Students must complete the following:

- Complete the Master's degree with a
- Complete the degree
- Maintain satisfactory progress in
- Minimum 3.0 GPA
- Minimum 51% of the
- Minimum 51% of the
- Minimum 51% of the Requirements of the Grant

- Must complete the Master's degree
- Must complete the degree
- Must complete the degree

Funding

- Funding is available for the whole year
- Funding is available for the whole year
- Funding is available for the whole year

This four-year personal preparation project will provide a high-quality education using the knowledge and skills required to become an effective teacher of children with ASD and work effectively with their families.

NM-PASS